We invite you to showcase your programs, effective practices, solutions and experiences at this conference. Presentations focuses may include – but are not limited to:

• Technology in Apprentice Education & Training

• Apprentice Recruitment Strategies

• DAS & DOL Policy and Support

• Financial Wellness for Apprentices

• Innovative Instructional Strategies

• Preparing Individuals to Start Apprenticeships

• Strategies to Address Generational Differences

• Employer and Community Partnerships

• Recruitment of Women & Minorities

• JAC & Educator Partnerships

• Working with CBOs

• Workforce Investment Opportunity Act & Apprenticeship and Employment Training Panel

• Expanding Apprenticeship in New Industries & Occupations

Goals for Presenters:

Consider what you have to offer the apprenticeship community (JACs, Instructors, Employers, Educators, Apprentices, etc.) that can be implemented by attendees of the conference audience (see form).

- Provide Information that attendees can take home and apply in their region
- Highlight services JACs, Educators, and other apprenticeship organizations can use
- Present proven strategies of success, best practices, and methods regarding the development of program growth and/or quality
- MAKE IT INERESTING, INFORMATIVE, and…FUN

The Conference Committee will review submissions and will notify presenters as to whether their proposal has been selected.
